

As a resident of Algiers since 1978, I agree with Rep. Patrick Connick of Harvey that the tolls on the Crescent City Connection need to go. The toll revenue was intended to go toward upkeep and maintenance.

There is very little, if any, transparency of revenues collected during three decades. West Bank citizens have paid more than enough. There are several other bridges owned by the state where tolls do not exist.

Robert Desjardins

New Orleans